

Terrific Tuesdays at the JCC

Senior Programs for 55+

The Program for Terrific Tuesdays focuses on the active senior interested in a variety of educational and social presentations. All East Valley residents are welcome
$3.00 Suggested Donation at the door. Refreshments will be served.

OCTOBER 2011

L'SHANAH TOVA!

Tuesday, October 4th @ 10:30 AM –

Our guest speaker is SCOTT LINEWEAVER, a hearing aid consultant, who will speak about hearing loss, the reasons behind why and how this occurs and new treatments that are now available. Please join us!

Tuesday, October 11th @ 10:30 AM –

The Phoenix Art Museum Docent ANNE PALAZZO will present “American Identity”. This talk will cover art produced in America from the Revolutionary times through the 1920's which tells us about our country's identity. Works will include portraits, scenes of everyday life and momentous occasions. This will be an interesting journey though 250 years of our country's history. Do not miss this great presentation!

Tuesday, October 18th @ 10:30 AM –

Please join us as we have a very special guest ARIZONA CLIMATELOGIST, NANCY SELOVER who's topic is: “Arizona Weather”. You will not want to miss this amazing presentation!

Tuesday, October 25th @ 10:30 AM –

PAUL MARYNIAK, Arizona Republic Editor of the East Valley edition, who has been in the newspaper business for thirty-five years, will discuss the status of today's written papers.

