

“INGATHERING OF THE EXILES: THE MANY FACES OF ISRAEL”

Featuring Israel advocate and former
IDF lone soldier Jake Bennett

Open Beit Midrash • Speaker Series

Thursday, October 18 • 11 a.m.

Cost: $14, which includes kosher lunch

Registration required: webbc@evjcc.org or 480.897.0588

Jake Bennett’s talk celebrates Israel’s story of diversity, absorption, melting pot, Ahavat Yisroel, struggle and achievement. He will present an overview of the waves of Aliyah from the 1880s to the present, including his personal observance as an American immigrant in the late 1990s.

Guest speaker Marc Provisor,
Security projects director of One Israel Fund

In his work with One Israel Fund, Marc Provisor’s primary focus is on the strategic and biblically significant Judea and Samaria regions, the Jordan Valley and communities along the Gazan border. He was previously the IDF security chief of the Shilo Region. One Israel Fund is an agency dedicated to providing humanitarian aid and services throughout Judea, Samaria, the Jordan Valley and the re-emerging communities of Gush Katif evacuees.
